VINTAGE CAR RALLY HORNIMANN CIRCLE, MUMBAI

Politico Chhagan Bhujbal flagged off a vintage car rally in conjunction with Chhaya Momaya from South Mumbai. While Chhagan himself drove a 1947 Cadillac, Parvez Damania seated himself at the wheel of a 1948 Buick for the drive to the Bandra-Worli Sea Link and back. Chhaya, wearing a black jacket looked svelte and said that she was particularly taken up by a publisher at the rally who drove his vintage car to work every single day. Police honcho D Sivanandan, in an antique Chrysler, looked happy to be among so many cars while Vinod Nayar came in as a spectator.

DANCE PERFORMANCE NATARANI, AHMEDABAD

The Festival of Non-Violence through Arts opened with a beautiful Kathak performance by Jaysi, who was the poet, storyteller, dancer and choreographer of the whole concept. The spoken word included the works of EE Cummings, Galway Kinnel, Salman Rushdie, and original poetry by Jaysi. The presentation explored aspects of freedom including freedom of emotion, freedom of imagination, freedom of speech, freedom of and from religion, and how freedom relates to peace and communal harmony. After Hrs lensman Pankaj Shukla captures the nuances of the performance.
